Playing games is one of the popular trends nowadays along with the statement that playing a computer game is a waste of time, which I will explore in the following essay.

Firstly, the computer games are addictive. At the beginning of the week they spend few hours in week but in future, their hours of using the computer and play the game for several hours even after doing other their works such as their school homework.

Secondly, I would like to explain is that computer games can cause eye irritation, headache, and hand pain. Nowadays, the biggest main reason behind that is sitting for hours and eating junk food.

Finally, some children find it difficult to identify what they are playing. People argue that this has led to a rise in crime inspired by video games. It is also undeniable that games today can be very violent.

In conclusion, I am of the opinion that computer games should not be allowed to play them.

Topic 11: When choosing a job, the salary is more important than the job itself. Do you agree or disagree with the statement?

The salary is regarded as one of the most important factors in choosing a job. Salary is the real outcome of the job performed and the selection. However, I completely disagree that salary is more important than the job itself.

Firstly, it seems hard for an individual to achieve happiness without shelter, cloth, and education for example.

Secondly, relationships have been considered to be an important factor for achieving happiness. In simple words, strong family ties or a close relationship with friends can contribute to one's overall well-being.

Last but not least, the key to achieve happiness is to enjoy life to the fullest.

In conclusion, it is difficult to give a precise definition of happiness as it is a highly subjective concept. I believe that basic needs like food, shelter, and safety are the prerequisites of a happy life.

Topic 13: Some people prefer to spend their free time outdoors. Would you prefer to be inside for your leisure activities? Use specific reasons to support your answer.

Everyone has his or her personal reasons behind spending free time outdoors. Some people prefer to spend their free time indoors because they want to save their money. Personally, I prefer to spend leisure time outdoors.

First of all, I choose spending leisure time outdoors because it is a natural environment. If you work all day at the office you may feel tired and stressed. Nature is healthier for a human who stays at a distance from the office.

Therefore we need to spend as much time as possible outdoors. We feel more relaxed than the constant pressure from work and responsibilities and worries of the daily life. The scenic beauty of nature calms us from stress and anxiety.

Furthermore, people who take up the time outdoors feel more energized. When I come home after a long day at work, I always devote my spare time outdoors with my family members. It does not give you the same satisfaction as having fun with friends, but it is a great way to recharge and refresh our minds.

Topic 15: Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? People who earn a lot of money are successful. Use specific reasons and examples.

It is said that a person is successful only if he earns a lot of money. However, fame or success to people that success depends on various factors.

First of all, Success is a feeling of fulfillment. Unlike material things, success is personal something that exists inside a person's heart.

Secondly, there are many famous musicians, artists, models, etc. They are known as a successful person in our society.

Finally, many people earn money from illegal manner, but it does not mean he is successful.

In conclusion, do not measure money by success because success depends on various factors in the world to achieve success.
